SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

OUR COMMITMENTS

No to pesticides...

The maintenance of our green spaces is done entirely without pesticides. Furthermore, all leaves and other green waste are reused in the city as natural fertilizer thanks to the communal compost.

IT'S YOUR TURN TO PLAY

During your stay with us, we encourage you to take a few simple actions to contribute to sustainable development and energy saving.

SORT

Devices are in place to sort your household waste. You will also find containers for your recyclable waste, glass, and household waste at the entrance of the camping restrooms.

REMINDER OF SORTING INSTRUCTIONS

Recyclable papers and packaging
All the papers, magazines, newspapers, brochures...
Plastic bottles and containers
Food cartons and bricks
Metal packaging, cans, aerosols, cans...
en vrac sans sac

Glass
Remove the caps and lids

Non-recyclable waste
Plastic film, plastic trays, polystyrene, layers...

SWITCH OFF

The rule is simple! Just turn off the light when leaving a room, the water while brushing your teeth... Small, simple actions that make a big difference!

PICK UP

Do not leave any waste behind you, in the common areas, the paths, or the spots! The environment and other visitors will thank you.

TOURIST INFORMATIONS

The municipal campsite located within the Citadel of Blaye is right at the gates of the town, where numerous activities await you!

From the ramparts of the citadel of Blaye, the panorama reveals a stunning view of this vast estuary, the meeting point of the waters of the Garonne and the Dordogne before they flow into the Atlantic Ocean.

Freely accessible, the Citadel of Blaye allows visitors to explore independently and stroll at their own pace through its walls and cobbled streets.

For history enthusiasts seeking an in-depth understanding of this major site of the Vauban lock, guided tours through the underground tunnels are also offered, providing specialized insights into its remarkable history and architecture by the Blaye Tourist Office.

Blaye offers a traditional market every Wednesday and Saturday morning all year round. The main avenue of the town comes alive with street vendors who complement your permanent shops! Find local producers, fishmongers, butchers and delicatessens, greengrocers, cheesemongers, poultry sellers as well as seed merchants, florists, takeout food vendors, clothing and accessory sellers, hardware store owners, rush seat restorers, sharpeners, etc. At the foot of the citadel, the atmosphere of the market remains a must-see for visitors and regulars!
